

Photography Workshop – Poet’s Walk and Historic Hudson Valley

Join Kevin VanBuren in the field photographing intimate and large landscapes. This workshop is for anyone with an interest in photography all you need is a digital camera and a desire to improve your photographic skills.

Kevin VanBuren a working photographer leads this program with over 20 years experience as a photographer and master educator taking the time to present detailed knowledge concerning all the issues experienced relating to photography. This workshop allows attendees to experiment with exposure, composition as well a number of other useful tips.

This workshop begins at 7 am, meeting at the gallery to head out to our first destination. This workshop will explore historic landmarks and public parks to reveal the beauty of the day. You will learn the basics as well many tips on photography throughout the day. This workshop will be more fluid exploring multiple areas in one day based on light and environmental conditions. During the day everyone will receive one on one review of his or her photos and assistance in setting up a photo. Exposure settings, composition and having fun finding the perfect vignettes of the day’s experiences will be discussed.

Who Should Attend – This program is intended for the beginning photographer thru intermediate photographer.

Equipment – All participants are encouraged to bring digital camera of any variety. Wear comfortable clothing including layering for comfort, as early mornings tend to be cool. A sturdy tripod is also recommended for those wishing to do macro work and low light long exposures.

Lunch – Pack a lunch or head out to one of many local eateries.

Registration – Please contact the gallery to be included in the upcoming workshop scheduled for 24 July 2010. No refunds are given to those that cancel within 30 days of a workshop. A credit will be applied to your next workshop scheduled.

Fees: $175.00 (US)
